

Figure 5. Distribution of reference reaches. Stars indicate where instrumented reaches were located. Dots and stars indicate locations of water quality sampling stations. Triangles and stars indicate reaches where biomass and composition data were collected. The bold line is highway 264 and the black mass in the center is the town of Farmville.